We hereby amend our Current Report on Form 8-K filed on March 26, 2008 to clarify the disclosures related to our divestiture of certain Australia and New Zealand operations.

Item 2.05 Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities.

We previously filed a Current Report on Form 8-K on March 20, 2008 in conjunction with our earnings release correctly indicating that we were "divesting or shutting down the majority of our Australian and New Zealand-based operations." The Current Report on Form 8-K that we filed on March 26, 2008 inadvertently omitted the words "the majority of" our Australia and New Zealand-based operations, thereby inaccurately implying that we were exiting entirely from the region.

Statements in this report concerning the future business, operating results, and financial condition of CRA International, Inc. (the "Company") and statements using the terms "anticipates," "believes," "expects," "should," or similar expressions, are "forward-looking" statements as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements are based upon management's current expectations and are subject to a number of factors and uncertainties. Information contained in these forward-looking statements is inherently uncertain and actual performance and results may differ materially due to many important factors. Such factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from any forward-looking statements made by the Company include, among others, the Company's restructuring costs and attributable annual cost savings, changes in the Company's effective tax rate, share dilution from the Company's convertible debt offering and stock options, dependence on key personnel, attracting and retaining qualified consultants, dependence on outside experts, utilization rates, factors related to its recent acquisitions, including integration of personnel, clients, offices, and unanticipated expenses and liabilities, risks associated with acquisitions it may make in the future, risks inherent in international operations, the performance of NeuCo, changes in accounting standards, rules and regulations, changes in the law that affect its practice areas, management of new offices, the potential loss of clients, dependence on growth of the Company's business consulting practice, the unpredictable nature of litigation-related projects, the ability of the Company to integrate successfully new consultants into its practice, intense competition, risks inherent in litigation, and professional liability. Further information on these and other potential factors that could affect the Company's financial results is included in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company cannot guarantee any future results, levels of activity, performance or achievement. The Company undertakes no obligation to update any of its forward-looking statements after the date of this report.
